NLRAD Purpose

- Assist in meeting international reporting obligations and validate the United States' required international reporting to the OIE, as well as required export certifications
- Provide minimum standardization of state reporting requirements and reporting to national level
- Strengthen trade negotiations by eliminating issue of no 'single' United States National Reportable Animal Disease List
- Improve zoonotic, emerging issues, and endemic animal disease reporting in the United States

Broad support for the NLRAD

Joint NAHRS-NAHLN Group

- Formed to address issues related to implementation of a NLRAD
- Develop a draft implementation plan
- Issues:
 - Confidentiality/ proprietary concerns
 - Emerging diseases reporting (case definition)
 - Reporting of other NLRAD listed diseases (notifiable and monitored)

NLRAD: Standard Operation Procedures

- Expanded SOPs from NLRAD White Paper
- SOPs include:
 - Approval and annual review
 - Procedures for updates and edits to NLRAD
 - Routine changes (e.g. OIE listing/de-listing)
 - Emerging diseases
 - Case definitions
 - Reporting procedures: ‘Notifiable’ (including emerging diseases) and ‘Monitored’

NLRAD Plan

- Continue with joint NAHRS-NAHLN working group to finalize recommendations
- Review of NLRAD list
- Continue development of NLRAD SOPs
- Regulatory implementation process- initiate in late 2016

All of these efforts take into account stakeholder feedback on the 'NLRAD' Concept Paper as well as continue to garner stakeholder input.
