NATIONAL LIST OF REPORTABLE ANIMAL DISEASES (NLRAD)

REBECCA JONES, DVM
VMO - EPIDEMIOLOGIST
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
ANIMAL AND PLANT HEALTH INSPECTION SERVICE
VETERINARY SERVICES
OCTOBER 23, 2018
Regulation to Report Animal Diseases
Why is it needed?
Notifiable

- Foreign animal diseases
- High consequence endemic
- Program diseases
- Emerging diseases
Notifiable

Duck viral hepatitis (poultry only)

Low pathogenic avian influenza (H5 or H7 subtypes) (poultry only)

Highly pathogenic avian influenza

Newcastle disease (exotic, virulent) (poultry only)

Salmonella enterica – Gallinarum & Pullorum

Turkey rhinotracheitis (poultry only)
Notifiable

Duck viral hepatitis (poultry only)

Low pathogenic avian influenza (H5 or H7 subtypes) (poultry only)

Highly pathogenic avian influenza

Newcastle disease (exotic, virulent) (poultry only)

Salmonella enterica – Gallinarum & Pullorum

Turkey rhinotracheitis (poultry only)
Monitored
Monitored

Avian chlamydiosis (psittacosis and ornithosis, Chlamydia psittaci)

Avian infectious bronchitis

Avian infectious laryngotracheitis

Avian mycoplasmosis (Mycoplasma gallisepticum & synoviae)

Infectious bursal disease (Gumboro disease)
Reporting
feedback
Rebecca Jones, DVM
VMO - Epidemiologist
U.S. Department of Agriculture
Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service
Veterinary Services
Rebecca.D.Jones@APHIS.USDA.GOV