

*126th Annual Meeting of the United States Animal Health Association
Minneapolis, MN*

Cattle & Bison Sub-Committee on Cattle Traceability

AGENDA

Sunday October, 9 2022

9:00 AM – 11:00 AM

Location: Greenway CDE.

Version 1.1, updated: 9/22/2022

Chair: Thach Winslow, DVM

Vice Chair: Andy Schwartz, DVM

Time	Topic/Title	Presenter(s)
9:00	Challenges &amp; Solutions encountered with ADT	Round Table Discussion
10 Minutes	Compliance & Traceability on cattle diverted during shipment	Dr. Charlie Broaddus - Virginia Sate Veterinarian Mitch Fredin – Fredin Bothers Cattle Scott Rydberg – Vet Sentry
10 Minutes	Alternative ID and Documents for cattle moving from livestock markets within the SAHA region	Dr. Diane Kitchen – Florida Bovine Programs Manager & State Epidemiologist Dr. Mike Short – Florida State Veterinarian
10 Minutes	Interstate movement of dairy calves	Dr. Andy Schwartz – Texas State Veterinarian
10 Minutes	Bottom up - Industry Focused Approach to implementing ADT	David Hecimovich – WA ADT Coordinator Dr. Amber Itle – Washington State Veterinarian
9:45	Q&A	Floor
10:15	Business Meeting Minutes Old Business New Members Pending Resolutions New Resolutions New Business	Open to all USHAH Committee Members Only Participate
10:55	Adjourn
Don't miss: Sunday Afternoon October 9th 5:15 PM - Great Lakes A2: Applied Animal Health, Public Health Research, and Extension Veterinarians Symposium  Evaluating Electronic Backtags to Enhance Traceability            Performance and Economic Feasibility of Ultra High Frequency (UHF) Radio            Frequency Identification (RFID) Backtags in the Texas Cattle Supply Chain:            Results of a Pilot Study  Casey Matzke            Texas A&amp;M AgriLife Extension		